9. [] Called Bud McFarlane, White House Congressional Relations office, to tell him we wanted to be sure they had focused on the fact that Senator Frank Church was given a full briefing on [] 13 March 1973 at a meeting of the CIA Subcommittees of Senate Armed Services and Appropriations Committees. McFarlane appreciated my call.

10. [] Called Senator Henry M. Jackson to tell him that at her request Carl Duckett would be briefing Dorothy Fosdick, of the Senator's staff, this afternoon on SALT and verification but I said Duckett was under some restraints with respect to matters concerning negotiations and can only discuss these with the Senator himself (as he did once before). The Senator said he understood and said we should tell Fosdick that under the guidelines there were certain things which Duckett could discuss only with the Senator and she would understand.

11. [] Had lunch with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and talked with him about a number of items including the President's meeting with the Intelligence Subcommittee leadership this morning. Braswell said he had no real feedback from this meeting but he gathered it was a satisfactory session. We discussed the various possibilities for changes in the congressional oversight of the Agency and Braswell expressed the opinion that no action to change the current situation would be taken in this Congress.

✓ I also discussed with Braswell Senator Abourezk's intention to restore on the Senate floor the language stricken from his amendment to the Foreign aid bill in the Foreign Relations Committee. []

[] Braswell suggested we find out if Abourezk's amendment is acceptable to the manager of the bill (who is probably Senator Sparkman) and be in touch with Braswell further about it. He is sympathetic to our concern but we both agreed we should make every effort to avoid any kind of floor fight in this issue particularly at this time.

I also briefed Braswell on the meeting of the combined Senate Subcommittees on 13 March 1973 when Senator Church was advised []

I showed Braswell a copy of [] which the Director quoted from in his recent appearance before the Committee [] Braswell asked for a copy but when I told him this would create some problems he withdrew his request with the understanding that our copy would always be available for his and the Chairman's inspection.

25X1 12. [] - GLC) Left with Nancy Bearg, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, for her background use with Chairman Stennis a copy of OGC's summary on international law as it relates to intervention.

25X1 15. [] - GLC) Jack Maury, DOD, and I chatted with Chairman F. Edward Hebert, House Armed Services Committee, and reference was made to the President's meeting with our Subcommittee Chairmen this morning but Hebert was unwilling to give any specific report on that session.

25X1 16. [] - GLC) At his request I met with Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affairs Committee, who gave me a copy of a letter which a constituent of Representative Herman Badillo sent him alleging the involvement of Thai Army units in Cambodia wearing Khmer Republic uniforms. Czarnecki said Badillo had sent this letter to the Chairman with the request that he investigate the matter and Czarnecki said the Chairman was under great pressure to do something about it. He asked if we would prepare a report on this allegation and submit it to the Chairman in whatever form we felt appropriate. He also gave a copy of this correspondence to Jack Maury, DOD, and made a similar request to him.

25X1 17. [] - SWH) Called Bill Espinosa, AID, to inquire as to what their plans are on police training restrictions which are being offered by way of amendments to the House and Senate versions of the Foreign Assistance Act. Espinosa said he did not plan to wage a floor battle on the Senate side, but was fairly confident that the House bill would be reported out without such restrictions, and therefore they hope to win in conference.
